NEWCOMERS: Do we have any newcomers today—to Al-Anon or to Al-Anon phone bridge meetings? We invite you to introduce yourselves so we may greet you. Please press the *1 key to un-mute. Welcome___, we’re glad you’re here.

May we have a volunteer to answer newcomer questions for approximately 10 minutes after the end of the meeting?

INTRODUCTIONS:

We now go around the globe and introduce ourselves by first name only. If you wish, please mention from where you are calling. Please be sure to press *1 to un-mute so that we can hear you. After introducing yourselves, we ask that you re-mute (by pressing *1 again) so that we can hear the names of individual members who are saying hello. I’ll start:

Hi, I’m ________; and I’m calling from __________...

Each week, we read one or two sections with our starting and stopping points determined by the chair and organized in large measure by bold faced print and/or clear breaks in the text.

Note: This INCLUDES the final sections of each chapter, “Questions for reflection and meditation” (ALL of the questions). Please read all questions three times slowly and repeat as necessary.
Can we now get two volunteers for today’s reading? Thank you. Our reading today starts on pg. ____, with section ____; and goes through the end of section ____, which ends on pg. ______. Would the first reader begin and would the other volunteer continue the reading seamlessly?

After the READING is completed, Secretary thanks the readers.

SHARES and TIMEKEEPING:

Before sharing, we offer a gentle reminder that we speak from our own experience, and ours is derived from living with alcoholism. We ask those who are members of other anonymous programs not to break their anonymity and try to identify with the Al-Anon approach to the family illness. Ours is a different experience and calls for a different interpretation.

We have 3-minute shares. Closing begins 10 minutes after the hour. At the top of the hour, we open up sharing especially to newcomers and to regular members of the bridge who often don't get to share; however newcomers are welcome to share at any time. We use this format as a way to ensure as much participation as possible.

Can we have a volunteer to be our timekeeper? Thank you. The timekeeper is asked to stay muted at all times, unless he or she is saying, “time.” When the timekeeper gently says “time,” speakers are asked to acknowledge that they've heard and begin to wrap up their shares. And, now, would our timekeeper like to share first?

We are now at the top of the hour: and, in accordance with principles guiding our recovery and, in particular, the 4th Concept, which reminds us that participation is the key to harmony, we now invite shares from newcomers and those who do not regularly share on the bridge. (If possible, indicate # of people on bridge.)

CLOSING (Beginns 10 minutes after the top of the hour):
a) We now begin the closing. First, I'd like to thank everyone who did service: our timekeeper, our readers, all those who shared and all who dialed in to listen.

b) And now, before saying the suggested closing, I want to invite people to call out names of those whose phone numbers they would like to have. We’ll ask for those numbers right after the serenity prayer.

c) and now the suggested Al-Anon Closing

Leader reads or asks a volunteer to read Al-Anon's closing found on page 396 in How Al-Anon Works or Page 380 in the old version of How Al-Anon Works.

SERENITY PRAYER:

And now, would all who would care to, press * 1 to unmute and join together in a moment of silent remembrance for anyone we have lost and join together in saying the Serenity Prayer.

   God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change,
Courage to change the things I can,
And wisdom to know the difference.
